Friday 12th May 2023

Dear Families

We had such a brilliant Big Picnic in celebration of King Charles III's Coronation on Friday. Due to the weather, we held it inside, but it was still fantastic. The children had learnt a special Coronation song, which they all sang. We also sang the National Anthem, with Joseph from Fox Class playing the violin and Mrs Shaw playing the trumpet. It really was very special.

This week has been really busy for our Year Sixes, who have been completing their SATs papers. They have worked so hard, and deserve a good rest this weekend! This afternoon, they will be getting a special film treat with popcorn included!

Next week is 'Walk to School' Week. We would like all children to participate. Please can you select one of the following options for your child to travel into school next week:

- Walk to school
- Take public transport
- Cycle or scooter
- Drive - but park in the car park in the recreation ground across the road or the back car park of The Walter Arms Pub and walk the rest of the way

You can find out more information here:

Next week, some of our Year Sixes will be completing their Bikeability training, which is excellent.

Have a lovely weekend.

Best wishes
