

BEARWOOD NEWS

Dear Families

Friday 3rd November 2023

It has been a pleasure to welcome the children back after the half-term break. They have returned well rested and ready to learn.

Our KS1 children got to enjoy an exciting visit to the Brooklands Museum, where they found out about the history of aviation. This is a part of their history topic on transport.

Thank you to the Reception parents who came to experience the reading workshop this week, delivered by Mrs Johnson. Parents were shown how to effectively listen to their child read, and then got to come into their child's classroom and actually put what they had been shown into practice. What an excellent, interactive workshop. Thank you, Mrs Johnson.

We are all looking forward to the PTA's school disco this evening. I can't wait to get on the dance floor!!

On Wednesday next week, we are holding a Therapeutic Thinking workshop for parents - at 9am and again at 6pm. This is an opportunity for parents to find out about our therapeutic approach to behaviour management.

We have been selling poppies and other merchandise for the Royal British Legion this week, and will continue next week. Our Remembrance assembly will take place next Friday.

Best wishes, Funmi Alder
